

The 26th Annual Capital City Marching Festival

Saturday, September 29, 2018
Toney Burger Center, Austin, TX

The 26th Annual Capital City Marching Festival is hosted by the LBJ/LASA High School Band Boosters in Austin, TX. Thousands of band members and their supporters from all over Austin and Central Texas will attend this first-class marching competition at Toney Burger Center in Austin on September 29th. Cap City is a homegrown, completely volunteer driven event. All proceeds directly benefit the LBJ/LASA High School Band students.

Please consider joining Cap City at the following levels of sponsorship:

Sponsorship is a wonderful opportunity to not only support and honor these talented Central Texas high school students, but also to attract the attention of a large number of area consumers. The deadline to be included in the Festival is August 24, 2018.

If you haven't seen a marching band festival, we encourage you to attend Cap City — it's an exuberant spectacle of sight and sound that is a joy to behold! Please join us in encouraging these hard-working students.

Thank you,

Brian Mayer, Director, LBJ High School Band
